The case of John B. Holmes, indicted for fargery in the first degree, in counterfeiting the name of his wife to a deed conveying real extace, was then brought on for trial. Some time was consumed in getting a Jury, when, after a close examination of each Juror as his name was called, and three being set saide on challenge, a full Jury was at length obtained. The Assistant District Attorney then opened the case to the Jury, with a brief statement of the facts involved. The real estate in question is located in Alhany, at the corner of Hamilton and hips streets, and the forgery, as the procurement of the forgery was alleged to have been prepertised on the 25th of July list in this city. The grantee of the property was James B. Nagle, seq., of New-York City, who covenanted to give $1,600 for the land in question. The accused was charged with having procured the services of a Miss Emms Duck, who went with the defendant before a commissioner of deeds, and executed the aforesaid deed as the wife of John B. Holmes. Miss Duck becoming afterward conscience smitten, revealed her agency in the transaction, and that she had been inveiged into it by the wiles of Holmes.

illes of Holmes. Called by the prosecution was Benjamin F. The first witness called by the prosecution was Benjamin F. Blinge, Commissioner of Deeds. Mr. Billings being sworn, sid: I live at No. 377 Bowery, and am Ceunsellor-at law and commissioner of Deeds; Holmes called at his office with the coman now named Emma Duck; Holmes said she was his wife; the woman signed the name of Ada Holmes to the deed; witch the company of the side of the commissioner of the com

Mr. Sedgwick, Assistant District Attorney, here read the contents of the deed to the Jury.

James Kerr, brother of Mrs. Halmes, was the next witness called by the People. This witness said: I am a clerk in a dry-goods store in Canal street; the name of his sister is Ada Jemima Roimes; he had seen her write frequently, and knows her handwriting; the deed in question was here shown to the witness by the District Attorney; witness examined it and said the name of Ada Hoimes affixed to it was not the handwriting of his sister; she had been married to Hoimes about eighteen months; she is in Europe now; she left on the 5th of last August; she had not lived with Hoimes from the 6th of July up to the ince of leaving for Europe; she had separated from him everal times before; witness lived at No. 450 Pacific street, Brooklyn.

The witness was here subjected to a long and rigid crossexamination, the principal fact which it developed being a state of bitter personal hostility between the witness and the accused.
The witness was opposed to the marriage of his sister with the accused; he confessed to some agency to bringing about the indictment of the accused; Holmes had threatened the life of the witness, and assaulted him in his own house in Brooklyn; the accused had frequently quarrield with him; a suit is now pending in the Superior Court brought by Holmes against the witmess, but the complaint was not verified, for, said Kerr, Holmes dared not do it without committing perjary," and the accused offered the officer $50 to put witness into jail; a divorce muit is also pending brought by Holmes against his wife before her leaving for Europe, and witness had been authorized by power of attorney from Mrs. Holmes to answer the complaint; witness said, in the presented witness had been authorized by for attorney from Mrs. Holmes to answer the complaint; witness said, in the presented on this indictment, there was another pending on which he was sure to be convicted; he had another Holmes was a bad man, and was constantly persecuting and armoying the life of the witness; he had never seen his alster sign ber name as Ada Holmes.

In reply to Mr. Sedgwick, touching the personal difficulties between the witness and Holmes, the former said they were primarily caused by the brutal conduct of the accused and his wife; witness had assisted, at his sister's request, to remove a plano from ber house.

Mrs. Mary Kerr, wife of the foregoing, was next sworn, but was the cause of the difficulty between the accused and maying wife; witness had assisted, at his sister's request, to remove a plano from ber house.

Mrs. Mary Kerr, wife of the foregoing, was next sworn, but her testimony had in it nothing of material importance.

The next witness was Emma Duck, the woman who personated Mrs. Holmes in the execution of the deed Being sworn, she said—I was born in Yorkshire, England; she first saw the accused about the 14th of hast April; she knew the deed in question, but did not know who signed the name of Mrs. Holmes to it; she first saw it at Mr. Holmes's office, corner of Broadway and Reade street; Holmes asked her to execute the deed, to which witness and she could not, as it was not her hand-wilding the accused asked her to execute the deed, to which witness and she could not, as it was not her hand-wilding the accused to did not wish her to write the name; it was already written, at the same time showing her the signature; Holmes asked witness to go before a Commissioner of Deeds, as it would confer a great favor on him and would not happy her in the least; she then went with the accused to Mr. Banford's office and there saw Mr. Billinge; Holmes there claimed the witness as his wife and witness acknowledged the signature of Mrs. Holmes to be deed as her signature; this was done to Billings; she had also acknowledged the signature of a second for Holmes; the accused took the deed out of his pocket already signed.

done to Billings; the had also acknowledged the signature of a second for Holmes; the accused took the deed out of his pocket already signed.

The prosecution here rested, when the Court took a recess for 15 minutes. At 2 o'clock the Court reassembled, when the defense commenced with their witnesses.

Capt. Van Orden of the Twenty-second Police Precinct, was called, who testified to a purpose expressed by James Kerr, in the office of ex-City-Judge Stuart yesterday, to have Holmss coavicted on some one of the Charges pending axints thin.

Officer Thomas Howles of the Twenty-second Police Precinct, who was present at the occurrence to which the foregol is wit ness testified, was called to confirm his statement, but he did not fully confirm; he confirmed only partially, as he said as did not here the whole.

Ex-City Judge Stuart was then sworn—He said Kerr was in his office yesterday and said he expected to hear some hard awaring in defense of Holmes to day, but he was prepared to show the truth of the matter, whatever they swore to; Kerr said Holmes was a very had man, and had persecuted him a long while; it was time he was taken care of if this Jury disagreed, Kerr said he had something else that would be sure to convict. Holmes; Kerr said he was determined to spare no pains until Holmes was where he ought to be, and that was in State Prison—that there was another deed of the same character with the one in question, in the hands of Mr. Drinker, that would fix him, if this did not, Judge Stuart said he believed Capt. Van Orden was a friend of Holmes.

fix him, if this did not.

On cross examination, Judge Stuart said he believed Capt.

Van Orden was a friend of Holmes.

Mary Stewart, grandmother of the accused, and aged 75 years, was then sworn. The substance of her testim my was that she had seen Mr. Holmes take out two blank deeds, between the last and tho July last, and had seen Mrs. Holmes sign them, without swearing that either of the deeds was the one in question.

tween the lat and 4th of July last, and had seen Mrs. Holms sign them, without awearing that either of the deeds was the one in question.

James Ryan, a servant in the employ of Holmes about his edited, also testified that he had seen Mrs. Holmes sign two deeds about the first of July in the office of Holmes. But unfortunately for the testimony of the old lady, this witness swore there was no one in the office when Mrs. Holmes signed these deeds but the accused, his wife, and this witness. He also said Mrs. Holmes signed her name as Alla Holmes. Finally, this witness said he did not know which name Mrs Holmes signed, her own, or that of John B. Holmes. The accused is a Surveyor and Engineer.

Wm. J. Kane, a young student at law, being swora, said he knew the handwriting of Holmes, and Identified his name on the deed as his signature; that of his wife, on the same instrument was not in the handwriting of the accused.

Here the defense rested, and Mr. J. B. Phillips commenced summing up to the Jury. He began by observing that the prosecution admitted that Mrs. Holmes had no separate property of her own in the estate in question, but he sparste property of her own in the estate in question, but he sparste property of her own in the estate in question, but he sparste property of her own in the estate in question, but he sparste property of her own in the estate in question, but he same length, commenting upon the evidence of about half as hear, quoting law and commenting on the evidence especially, with quite forcible critical analysis.

The Court then proceeded to charge the Jury for about eighteen minutes, going over the law applicable to the case, and forcibly reviewing the evidence, pointing quite distinctly toward the guilt of the accused, and at about 4 p. m. the case when the same in the same in

The jury retired and were absent about five minutes, when they returned abounding a verding figure Mr. Parings requested that the Jury he poled respecting their verdict, when radh prior answered for a verdict of milty.

The lips observed, saying he should like some time to unker out a build respect on the July and request he would give Mr. Pasing will be a very to make out a build not be supported by the July and the sound of the following the Mr. Pasing will be a very to make our such buil, and deferred sentence will that day. the that day.

TUESDAY, Nov. 17-P. M. The transactions at the Stock Board to-day were to enormous extent, and the first call was not over until 11 o'clock. The spirit of speculation was campant, and the Board was a scene of intense excitement, the desire to buy touching almost the point of insanity. Each lot of stock offered was claimed by half-a dozen buyers. The shorts were free purchsers, but the upward impetus of prices received large aid from outside orders and from the clique of bull operators who have control of the market. The public, who are generally in at the highest point, are buying now the stocks they refused when 20 to 30 ? cent lower. One remarkable feature in view of the activity at the Board is the large proportion of business done for cash. The time operations are comparatively small. The aggregate registered business to day was $160,000 of bonds and 29,000 shares of stock. Of this, less than 6,000 shares were on time. In addition, a large business was done outside the Board. The advance in State Stocks was rapid, and Missouris recovered all they lost yesterday, closing at 77; Virginias ran up from 89 to 91; Californias sold at 70; North Carolina, 871; Louisiana, 80; Tennessees, 88, &c. Among the most buoyant stocks were those which have recently been depressed. Michigan Southern, which was 23 yesterday, sold up to 27, and the Preferred to 45]. Within 40 days, Michigan Southern has sold as low as 6. La Crosse advanced to 18 from

13 yesterday, and Milwankee and Mississippi to 37]

from 31 yesterday, &c. In Railroad Bonda, the basi; 160 m and 160 931. Republic 951, American Exchange 90, Metropal iten 93, &c. The annexed comparison will show the extent of the improvement which has taken place in prices at the Stock Board since the suspension of he banks, 35 days. We think the advance is unpreedepted in the history of the Board.

All the State Banks but about twenty have responded to the resolutions of the Clearing-House in regard to redemptions. From present appearances, there will no. be more than eight or ten banks, if as many, which will fail to make sui able arrangements before Thursday for redeeming their notes as usual at the Metropolitan Bank. A preliminary consultation of a few of our bank officers was held to-day, at which the question of resumption was freely discussed. The extreme views of both parties appear to have been somewhat modified, and the sentiment of the meeting was that resumption would quietly and of necessity ensue during be $900,000. Speaking of the new mortgage of seven millions, The Ledger says:

"We have not the details of the arrangement, but understand generally, that the Company will probably be relieved from any further difficulty in relation to its floating liabilities. The position enjoyed by the Company under the act extending the 1850 loans, it is said, will probably make the creditors tractable. We have no doubt it is the purpose of the Company, that every creditor shall have his full claim, but it is manifestly for the interest of both the Company and creditors that the road shall be continued in operation under Company management, that all must rejoice that it is likely to escape frem its pecuniary difficulties."

The Commonwealth Bank, recently organized at Philadelphia is to go into operation to-day. Robert Philadelphia is to go into operation to-day. Robert Morris, esq., is to be its President. Advices from Havana to Nov. 8, have been received.

The money market was very stringent, and discounts were difficult at 15 218 $\psi$ cent $P$ acnum; on London, Exchange was $\frac{1}{2} 10 $\psi$ cent; on New-York, short sight, 6@8 premium, 60 days par to 1 prem. Freights were more active at £3 to £3 5s. for Cowes and a market, and 50 275c. for the United States. Sugars were lower, and the stock was 205,000 boxes against 160,000 boxes last year, and 50,000 boxes in 1855. There had also been a heavy decline in Molasses.

Charles Parsons, banker, of Keokuk, has made an serigament. The cotten mills of Joseph Ripks, at Manayunk, are again in operation. Spencer's mills at German-town will also resume work in a few days. The extersive cotton mills near Hestonville, Pa., are now undergoing thorough repair, and will be in full opera-tios in a few days.

The Carolina Mil's, Natick Mills, and nearly all the mills in Fall River, Mass., it is said will recommence operations this week.

7 he Springfield Republican says:

"A leading cotton manufacturer of this county says there is not a three months' supply of cotton goods in the county. If this be true the milis must soon resume work, or prices will rapidly advance before Spring."

With no considerable change anywhere, State street is manifestly growing easier from week to week. The complaint now is of the lack of the right sort of paper, rather than of money. It is true that lenders are extraordinarily, perhaps unduly, csutious; but, beyond a doubt, the number of acceptable names is slowly increasing, and for these names there is an abundant supply of money at one to one and a quarter per cent. Anything cutside of such favorite names goes hard at 11 22 2 cent, with little done, however, at these extreme rates, as most lenders will not take anything worse than what they hold to be "first chop" at any price. There is no considerable cutside demand for money, and in the banks, as a whole, credit is quite easy of access, in reasonable amounts, at 6 29 2 cent. On Saturday morning the banks held $3 746,700 in specie. The chance is they will reach $5,000,000 by January. The New-York Banks probably hold $18,000,000, of which $5,000,000, in all likelihood, are "special deposits," entirely unreliable in the event of a quick demand or high premium for gold. By including special deposits, "entirely unreliable in the event of a quick demand or high premium for gold. By including special deposits in their specie holdings, as we are informed the New-York Banks always do, the public is likely to be deceived with regard to the real strength of these institutions. This was the case before the suspension, when the real specie of the New-York Banks was many millions less than it was reported to be.

Judge McLean delivered an opinion yesterday in the case of George S. Coe, trustee for the bondhulders of the Cincinnati, Wilmington and Zaneaville Railroad Company, against Thatcher, Burt & Co., in Chancery. The superiority of a mortgage of the road, rolling stock, income, &c., granted by the Cincinnati, Wilmington and Zaneaville Railroad Company, to the bondholders of the Company, or of the mortgage of Thatcher, Burt & Co., builders of the bridges of the road across the Muskingum River and canal at Zaneaville, was the leading question at issue, defendants claiming their lien to be paramount.

The plaintiffs allege that their mortgage was given before that of the defendants operated, and claim that the bridges form part of the road. The defendants answer that the road was mortgaged before the bridges were built, and therefore that the plaintiffs mortgage dees not cover the bridge, and that the Cincinnati, Wilmington and Zaneaville Railroad Company gave hem certain promissory notes amounting to $10,000, for balance due them on their contract, and also, to secure them, executed to them a mortgage on the bridges, conditioned to be void on the payment of the balance due them.

The plaintiff, however, does not claim that the mort-that one day intervened between the execution and delivery of the mortgage from the Railroad Company to the defendants, and the date of its being recorded—at which time it first became operative, and therefore in that day the lien of the plaintiffs became prior to that of the defendants.

The Court held that the defendants had an equitable lien which a Court in Chancery was bound to and would respect, and therefore ordered a proportional claims.

plaintiff and defendants, according to their respective claims.

From The Ohio State Journal of Saturday.

This afternoon, Judge Bates delivered the opinion of the Court in regard to three of the canal contracts, to wit: Those of Doyle and Miller, Medbery & Co., and Forrer, Burt & Co. These three presented precisely the same points at issue, and it was agreed by the counsel for the parties, and by the Attorney-General, that they should stand or fall together.

The points were as to whether the Board of Public Works had a discretionary power in letting the contracts in regard to what constituted "the lowest responsible bidder," and also whether the statute had been complied with in the bonds of the parties taking the contracts, which were only to twice the amount of the contract price of one year, it being contended that the statute meant bonds for double the amount of the centract price for the five years.

We have only time to state that the Court held that the Board of Public Works had discretionary power to decide who were and who were not the lowest responsible bidders; that the word responsible, in this cancetion, was not I mited to a mere pecuniary responsibility, but comprehended also mental and practical responsibility.

The Court also held that although the statute would be at the construction that the honds should be twice the Court also held that although the statute would bear the construction that the boads should be twice the amount of the entire contract price, still it would bear also the other construction put upon it by the Board of Public Works; and as they had put that construction upon it, the State was bound by it.

The other cases are continued until the next term.

There are many facts of interest in this report. The circulation of the Bank of the State and of the Bank of South Carolina has increased, while of all the other banks there has been a falling off. In all the banks there is a falling off in specie; and the Bank of Charleston, with a capital of $3160,600, the Bank of Hamburg, with a capital of $560,000, and the Bank of Newberry, with a capital of $360,000, and the Bank of Newberry, with a capital of $360,000.

The Boston Courier gives the following facts and figures regarding the Copper Mining Stocks of that market:

"Mining stocks, of the better class, have run down with an unparalleled rapidity, and many of the heretofore low priced censerns, Isle Royale, Flint Steel, Central Huron, Toltee, &c., have almost entirely failed out. Minnerota and Pittsburgh, the only dividerd paying Companies have declined enormously, the former $65 $\Pri$ share, and the latter $48 $\Pri$ share in one month. The extreme in Minnesota has been $104 $\Pri$ share, or from $179 June 27, to $75 Oct. 28, equal to a depreciation in market value of $2,080,000. This alarming downfall in Minnesota was occasioned, in a great degree, by the Company being compelled to suspend the payment of the dividend of $74 $\Pri$ share due to-day, for want of each means to pay it. The payment has been extended to February I, and as the regular dividend would be due May 1, 1858, that may be persponed also, as its hardly probable that means can be raised to pay two so near together. Pittsburgh has fallen from $286 July 18, to $170 Oct. 30, a loss of $696 600 in value. The Company has 5,000 shares and the Minnerota 20,000. The decline in other mining shares from the highest prices have been very heavy; Rockland $836 50 or $20; National, $50 to $20; Superior $14 50 to $5; Flint Steel, 50c. to $2 asked; Copper Fal's. $14 (highest recently) to about $4; Pewahne, $7.50 to $4.50; Isle Royale, (since the increase to 20,000 shares), $5 to $2 \Psi share." The City of Des Moines (Iowa) is issuing scrip to circulate as money, bearing 3 V cent V month interest. The loans granted to several railroad companies, by the last Alabama Legislature, have not been applied for on the terms laid down by the Legislature. Had application been made, however, the funds were not in the Treasury for such a purpose. From the report of the Commissioners appointed to examine and report upon the affairs of the chartered banks of that State, it appears that they are in a prosperous condition.

With no considerable change anywhere, State street is manifestly growing easier from week to week. The complaint now is of the lack of the right sort of paper, rather than of money.
